

Protect Yourself with Powerful Passwords

Cybercriminals want your password!

Passwords are your first line of defense against cyberattacks.

Stay safe with these trustworthy tips:

→ DON'T ←

- Don't use common passwords
NO → 12345, password, 1asdasd
- Don't post your password on sticky notes or papers at your desk. Keep them safe and secure.
- Don't recycle passwords.
- Don't give your user name or password to anyone on your behalf.
- Don't mix personal passwords with business passwords.
- Don't enter your user name and password on a website from an unexpected email or social media link.

→ DO ←

- Do consider using a password manager.
- Do create unique patterns and use special characters and numbers.
- Do change default passwords.
- Do update passwords on important accounts yearly.

